Virgin Mary statue begins weeping again

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — A statue of the Virgin Mary in a small town in the Philippines began weeping again on Monday, the first time in nearly 50 years. The statue, known as the 'Weeping Virgin,' is located in the town of Marikina. It is believed to be the same statue that wept in 1961. The weeping was witnessed by a group of people who were visiting the statue. The statue is made of wood and is covered in a white cloth. It is believed to be the same statue that wept in 1961. Betrayal of Filipino WWII veterans

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR: I am writing to you to express my deep concern and disappointment over the recent actions of the United States government regarding the Filipino WWII veterans. These brave men fought for our freedom and the freedom of the Philippines during the darkest days of World War II. Yet, they have been treated with a lack of respect and honor that is truly shameful.

The government has failed to provide them with the benefits and recognition they deserve. They have been denied the same rights and privileges that were granted to other veterans of the same conflict. This is a betrayal of the trust that was placed in them by the American people and the government.

I urge you to take immediate action to rectify this situation. The Filipino WWII veterans deserve the same respect and honor that was given to the other veterans of World War II. They are the heroes of our time, and they should be treated as such.

Sincerely,

Jail officials warned of Abu escape plot, says AFP

Manila, April 20 (AFP) — Philippine prison officials were warned of a possible escape plot by Abu Basma, a senior al-Qaeda operative, according to a report by the Associated Press.

The report, citing a source familiar with the matter, says that Abu Basma, who is being held in a high-security prison in Manila, has been plotting to escape with the help of other inmates.

Abu Basma, who is believed to be one of the most wanted terrorists in the world, was captured in Pakistan in 2003. He is currently being held in a prison in Manila, where he is being held in a high-security cell.

The report says that Abu Basma has been plotting to escape with the help of other inmates, who are also being held in the same prison. The plot is said to be in the early stages, and it is not clear whether it will succeed.

Philippine prison officials have been warned of the plot and are taking steps to prevent it. They have increased security around the prison and are monitoring the activities of the inmates.

The report also says that Abu Basma has been in contact with other al-Qaeda operatives, who are also being held in the same prison. It is not clear whether these operatives are also plotting to escape.

The Philippine government has been working to prevent the escape of Abu Basma and other high-profile prisoners. It has taken several measures to increase security around the prison and to monitor the activities of the inmates.

Abu Basma's escape would be a major blow to the Philippine government and to the international community. It would also be a major victory for al-Qaeda and other terrorist groups.

The Philippine government is determined to prevent the escape of Abu Basma and to bring him to justice. It is working closely with the international community to do so.

The report by the Associated Press is the first to suggest that Abu Basma is plotting to escape. It is not clear whether the plot is real or if it is just a rumor.

Philippine prison officials have not commented on the report. They have only said that they are taking steps to prevent the escape of Abu Basma and other high-profile prisoners.

The report by the Associated Press is a significant development in the case of Abu Basma. It suggests that he is still a major threat to the Philippine government and to the international community.

The Philippine government must take all necessary steps to prevent the escape of Abu Basma and to bring him to justice. It must also take steps to prevent the escape of other high-profile prisoners.

The international community must also take steps to prevent the escape of Abu Basma and other high-profile prisoners. It must work closely with the Philippine government to do so.

The challenge has been to find ways to make the most effective use of their information resources while also ensuring that the information resources are available to the right people at the right time. This challenge has been met in a number of ways, including the use of information technology, the development of information management systems, and the implementation of information management policies. This article discusses the challenges of information management in health care and provides some suggestions for how to meet these challenges.

RP asks China to lower tariff on coconut oil

By Christine S. Bayliss

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — The Philippines has asked China to lower its tariff on coconut oil, a move that could significantly boost the country's export earnings.

China's tariff on coconut oil is currently 15 percent, which is higher than the 10 percent tariff imposed by the United States and the European Union.

The Philippines is one of the world's largest producers of coconut oil, and its exports to China have been growing steadily in recent years.

Philippine officials say that lowering the tariff would help the country's economy by increasing its export revenue and creating more jobs in the coconut oil industry.

A passion for Mindanao's poetic myths

By Christine Herrera Aragon
PHILIPPINE DAILY INQUIRER

OF all the places in Mindanao, the province of Zamboanga has the most beautiful "myths" to tell and the most colorful folklore. Many generations of people have lived in this province, each with their own story to tell. The province is a treasure trove of myths and legends, and it is a place where the past is still alive.

Many of the myths are about the province's natural beauty, its people, and its history. Some are about the province's role in the Philippine Revolution, while others are about the province's role in the Philippine Independence Movement.

One of the most famous myths is the story of the "Bakas" or "Bakas" which are the province's most famous folk songs. These songs are about the province's natural beauty and its people.

She walks in beauty

By Kristin Phillips, C. Lopez

I have heard that the artist's life is a lonely one. But when I saw the work of the late artist, I was struck by the beauty of the life she lived. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.

She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.

She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.

She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.

She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.

She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.

She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that. She was a woman who lived a life of beauty and grace, and her work reflects that.
